J&C Joel help set the scene for the 2012 TPI Awards

As one of the live production and event industry's main suppliers of flame retardant stage dressing and rigging equipment, J&C Joel were proud to support the 2012 TPI Awards.

The 11th annual TPI Awards were held on 13 February 2012 and the ceremony has grown into one of the most important events in the live production industry's calendar, celebrating the leading lights within the industry - many of which are J&C Joel's customers.

J&C Joel were proud to sponsor the award for Favourite Set Construction Company, which was awarded to Brilliant Stages who stood out for the judges in an extremely competitive field.

Other awards handed out during the awards ceremony included Live Production of the Year, Tour Manager of the Year, Favourite Venue and Set Designer of the Year.

J&C Joel also manufactured nine bespoke fabric swags to dress the ceremony's venue, the prestigious Novotel London West Hotel in Hammersmith.

The drapes were manufactured from Blue Jomeleon (JOM604B), a sheer two-tone Trevira CS voile with fantastic iridescent qualities, particularly when backlit.

J&C Joel were honoured to be part of the awards given that many of the venues, production teams and set designers celebrated on the evening were no strangers to J&C Joel's products.

The 2012 TPI Awards were hosted BBC 6Music's Stuart Maconie & BBC 5 Live's Danny Baker and attended by representatives from over 200 companies working in and serving the live events industry.

The TPI Awards are the annual awards show of Total Production International: the live event production Industry's leading publication.
